Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, ofttimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses, and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

TWO YOUNG WOMEN FIGHT.

The details of a desperate fight between two young women, who are wives of well-known farmers, were learned in Winchester yesterday.

They met on the public road two miles from Winchester on last Saturday evening, their respective husbands accompanying them. Just as one vehicle overtook the other the women leaped out, and a moment later a terrific fist fight began.

One of the women opened with a vicious swing that landed on the other's jaw, and the latter retaliated with a hard body blow. For 30 minutes the two women pounded each other in the road, ankle deep in dust.

Several times the combatants clinched. Then, falling to the road, they rolled over and over in the dirt. Locked in each others embrace, they bit, scratched and kicked, while a cloud of dust enveloped them.

In the meantime the two husbands stood nearby and held the horses, allowing their wives to fight it out. It was a fight to the finish, the women finally stopping from exhaustion.

One of the women had a black eye and a cut across her face, made by the finger nails of her opponent, and a piece was chewed out of her arm. The other was covered with bruises, cuts, and scratches and they were scarcely able to walk. With the blood flowing from numerous wounds on their faces and their clothes torn into ribbons and covered with dust and dirt, the women were bundled into carraiges by the two husbands and taken home. Bad blood has existed between the two wemen for several years, and they repeatedly threatened to "do each other up" in the event they met on the road. When they passed on the streets in Winchester they would make grimaces and shake their fists at each other.

Mrs. Laura Lineberg, wife of Benjamin Lineberg, and Mrs. Emma Stoller, wife of James Stotler, prosperous Frederick county farmers, were the woman engaged in the fight.

NO CAUSE OF ALARM.

The French government greatly deprecates the alarmist view of the Japanese-American situation taken by a section of the Paris press, and an inspired statement, based presumably on the foreign office's advices, placing the most optimistic construction upon the plans to dispatch the American battleship fleet to the Pacific, was given out yesterday afternoon, as follows:

"Much surprise is manifested in diplomatic circles over the excitement caused by the plan to send the American battleship fleet to Pacific waters. Instead of the step causing alarm there is reason to believe that the decision of the American government implies that the negotiations proceeding between the Washington and Tokio Cabinets is making favorable progress. The American government, beyond doubt, would not order this naval movement if it was likely to embarrass the negotiations which have been going on for sometime between the two governments."

The semiofficial Temps adopts the same line. After a careful review of the events leading up to the decision to send the fleet to the Pacific the paper says it was inevitable and adds:

"The redistribution of the fleet creates inquietude, yet the right of the United States to send its ships where it pleases is incontestable and is no more to be criticised than the redistribution of the British fleet three years ago."

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. K. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. S. Lerdbeater & Son's drug store.

ALLEGED ACCOMPLICE.

Late yesterday the New York police arrested Harry Kirkstein, a telegraph operator, 22 years old, on a charge of acting with Mrs. Laura Carter in receiving and disposing of $5,000 stolen from the Windsor Trust Company by Chester B. Runyan.

Kirkstein was examined last night by Assistant District Attorney Corrigan. He said that he had lived with Mrs. Carter at a flat in west Sixty-sixth street for about a year and a half until recently she told him she had a "good thing" and he left her.

On the evening of the Fourth of July, he said, Mrs. Carter telephoned him to meet her the next morning, which he did. She told him, he said, that the "good thing" was Chester B. Runyan, the missing teller of the Windsor Trust Company, and that he had given her $5,000, which she had in her handbag. Kirkstein said he advised her to take the money to the trust company and tell the officials where Runyan was.

She replied, Kirkstein said, that she would return the money to Runyan and then give him up. He did not see the money, and had no idea whether she returned it to Runyan.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WENDESDAY EVENING, JULY 10, 1907.

THE MINISTERS of Virginia last winter through a body known as the interdenominational committee, took up with the railroads of the State the matter of running trains on Sundays, and after a conference between the committee and the presidents of the railroads it was agreed to stop selling all the very cheap tickets, good on Sunday only, and also not to run any more Sunday excursion trains. By this arrangement the Sunday excursion trips to Bluemont, which cost patrons of the road one dollar, have been cut off. While we all have our individual opinions concerning the observance of Sunday, it may be stated that this movement has brought forth a mild protest from a large class of people who have no other day in the week to spend in the mountains. That Sunday is desecrated by a large percentage of people cannot be controverted, but many are inclined to think that persons who occasionally spend Sunday in a quiet and sober manner quaffing the air of the Blue Ridge could be engaged in more mischievous pastimes on that day. Thousands live and die without seeing an ocean shore or a mountain peak—men who are compelled to toil six days in every week—men who never have a vacation and never expect an intermission in their labors save on Sundays, when museums, art galleries, &c., are closed. Such have no taste for the saloon or more questionable resorts, but to them a change of scenery and a trip to the mountains, if for one day only, is a boon. They read of their neighbors deserting cities before the advent of the first hot wave, while they are compelled to plod on and bear the heat and burden of every summer.

THE most radical, determined and wide-sweeping assault upon the capitalistic power of the country yet undertaken by the Roosevelt Administration was begun today when the Department of Justice set in motion its scheme for enjoining the tobacco trust from operating a combination to the restraint of trade and ultimate throwing of the monopoly into the hands of receivers. Milton D. Purdy, the "trust-busting expert," of the Department of Justice, and James C. McReynolds, special counsel, appeared for the government in the United States Circuit Court for the Southern district of New York and filed the civil suit. About 100 companies and individuals are mentioned in the bill as being component parts of the great tobacco trust. Mr. Purdy, admits that the government is not prepared to make an open fight at this time on the appointment of receivers for the corporations represented in the tobacco trust. The request for receivers is more in the nature of a suggestion to the court than a determined legal step. The tobacco trust attack is but a starter. A similar assault is already planned against the powder trust, and others are to follow as rapidly as the machinery of the courts and government can grind them out. The extreme radicalism of this latest move against the money power has caused a sensation already in the business and financial circles of the country. The almost absolute power which the government will be able to wield should it prove successful in its campaign for receiverships for giant monopolies is readily apparent. Through that method it will hold a club capable of battering down the strongest combination and make further laws against the trusts unnecessary.

AMOS WALFORD, the West Schuylkill, Pa., weather prophet, who won fame by predicting ten days in advance the exact time of the beginning of warm weather last month, is out in a new prediction, in which he declares the latter part of July and beginning of August will be prolific of disastrous electrical storms, caused by extreme heat. Over 100 persons will be killed by lightning within that time in Pennsylvania alone, he declares. Walford bases his predictions by watching the movements of birds. In the days of ancient Rome there was a class of "wissacres" known as augurs, who pretended to foretell mundane events by the flight of birds and by examining the entrails of the same. A celebrated character of classic days said he failed to understand how two augurs could look each other in the face without laughing. Were he living in our day he would doubtless repeat his observation.

From Washington.

Washington, July 10.

By direction of the president, Lieut. Colonel Charles G. Ayres, Fourteenth cavalry, has been ordered before a retiring board at the army building, New York city, July 17. Brigadier General John M. K. Davis is the president of the board which will examine Colonel Ayres as to his mental and physical condition. This is the outcome of his interview over his wife's ejectment from West Point. This action avoids a court-martial.

Postmaster General Meyer has been called hurriedly to his summer home at Hamilton, Mass., by the critical illness of his wife. Mrs. Myer and the two daughters have had to undergo operations for tonsilitis.

Affidavits having been made by physicians as to her physical condition, a motion will be made in the District Supreme Court today for the transfer of Mrs. Anna Bradley, charged with the murder of Senator Brown, from her cell to a hospital. It is said that she is in very bad health.

It has been figured out by statistically inclined naval officers that the sending of a big fleet of warships to the Pacific will be of great financial advantage to coast cities. Records in the department show that it costs approximately $1,000,000 annually to maintain a battleship and $800,000 for the care of an armored cruiser. This includes the cost of repairs, coal, provisions and pay of officers and men. All but the latter must be supplied from the resources of the far West. There will be in the neighborhood of 5,000 mouths on the fleet that must be fed three times a day. Millions must be expended for dock facilities if the fleet remains any length of time.

The postmaster general has created a new postoffice inspection district of Flordia, Georgia, and South Carolina, with headquarters at Atlanta, and today appointed George M. Sutton of Missouri, as inspector in charge.

Charged With Assault.

New York, July 10.—Carlo Rossi, a rich customs broker, sought by the police, is accused by Elsa Van Dessauer, a 19-year-old modiste who died at J. Hood Wright Hospital of a fractured skull today, as her assailant. Though the affair is said to have occurred July 4, the police were notified of it only today. It appears Elsa was dining with Rossi, in his apartments, when she fell ill and threw herself on a lounge in an adjoining room. According to the account her sister Mathilde and Dr. Beatty say she subsequently gave them, Rossi attacked her a few moments later and when she resisted struck her several times on the head with a heavy vase. Miss Dessauer was a chorus girl a year ago in the "Little Johnny Jones" company, but gave up the stage to help her sister, a successful modiste. Rossi came to America five years ago. He is well-to-do and is in business with his brother. He has considerable reputation as an amateur sculptor.

Wife No. 1 Helps Him Win Back Wife No. 2.

Chicago, July 10.—The settling out of court of the difficulties between Norman P. Cummings, millionaire clubman, and Laura C. Cummings, his $1,000 wife, was followed yesterday by the announcement that a complete reconciliation in the famous divorce suit had been effected and that Mrs. Anna Cummings, wife No. 1, had acted as peacemaker between her former husband and wife No. 2. The Cummings divorce suit was one of the most sensational ever brought in Chicago courts. Mr. Cummings was charged with buying his wife from another man for $1,000. He was accused of abuse after he had gained possession of her, and, after she had left him, spent thousands in bizarre efforts to win her back. Mrs. Cummings, it is said, started ten different suits for divorce in addition to the action dismissed yesterday.

Fire in Orphan Asylum.

New York, July 10.—Coolness by the adult officials and devoted loyalty by their 6 to 12-year-old orderlies prevented what treatened to be a fearful fire panic among inmates of the Hebrew Orphan Asylum early today. The fire, starting in the laundry, quickly filled the building with smoke. The 1,200 children in the asylum were in bed, but at the cry of fire stampeded for the dormitory doors. The orderlies, marshaled at the head of the stairways, checked the rush and sent the children back to their rooms where six little buglers, none more than six years old, marched through the big structure sounding the daily reveille. So accustomed have the boys become to hurrying into their clothes at the bugle's sound that they forgot the fire in their haste to dress. The fire was extinguished with about $3,000 loss.

Miss Schenck.

New York, July 10. — Florence Schenck may return, if she will, to her father's roof at Norfolk, Va., where her elopement with Chas. H. Wilson will be forgotten and her family will receive her again. Dr. Powhatan Schenck, her father, is expected here today to get her. Whether he comes prepared to deal with Wilson, as Miss Schenck intimated might be the case, does not appear. Nor is it certain that Miss Schenck will want to go home again. She confesses she is doubtful if she can bar the old scenes after her now shattered romance. The girl left the Victoria Hotel today for a more modest hostelry—not, it is understood, because she lacked funds—but because Wilson is said to have been so urgent for an interview that she decided to go to a place where he could not find her.

Steamer Strikes Iceberg.

New York, July 10.—An iceberg got the worst of it in collision with the German Lloyd steamship Kronprinz Wilhelm early Monday. Passengers on the big liner, which reached quarantine today, were asleep when the ship and iceberg crashed, and so slight was the shock that few of them were awakened. The officers admit, however, that they had the scare of a life time. The vessel was running at reduced speed in pitch darkness when the berg, 40 feet high, loomed up dead ahead. The engines were instantly reversed, but the ship struck the berg a glancing blow and chipped a corner from the massive ice cake which tottered for a moment and then tipped bottom upward with a terrific splash.

More Indictment.

Chicago, July 10.—Federal Judge Landis and District Attorney Sims, constituting the government battery in action against the trust bombarded the monopoly hosts today with new indictments. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company and alleged "furniture club" comprising the E. H. Stafford Manufacturing Company were charged with violations of the Interstate Commerce and anti-trust acts, respectively.

Barn Destroyed.

New York, July 10.—Fire destroyed James O'Kane's stable at Sheepshead Bay today and menaced Mr. Daniel's adjoining barn. Thirty horses were turned loose from the O'Kane barn and eighteen from the Daniel barn to save them from death. The frightened animals stampeded about the track and it was an hour before they were captured. The loss was about $3,000.

A victory for the copper consumers of the country was scored in New York yesterday when the copper producers who, for weeks, have been holding out for a price for the metal of 25½ cents a pound dropped their quotations sharply and offered copper at prices 2¼ to 3¼ cents under the recent asking level.

It was practically decided yesterday to erect a statue of Christopher Columbus that will cost $100,000 in the center of the plaza in front of the new Union Railway Station in Washington where it was originally intended to erect a large fountain. It is understood that the selection of this site was at the soliciation of the members of the Knights of Columbus, which organization was responsible for the act of Congress appropriating the money for the statue.

Vigorous application of the "third degree" today wrung from Miss Mary Brennan, the police say, the confession that she was responsible for the death of Charles L. Burnap, a waiter at the Hotel Edgmere, whose body, shot through the heart, was found yesterday afternoon on the shore of Lake Quinsigamond, near Worcester, Mass. Miss Brennan said that she and Burnap had been quarreling, when to frighten him she pulled a revolver. While she was holding it, it accidentally exploded.

J. H. Seward, of Baltimore, who has been importing oranges by the steamship load for years, was yesterday sentenced to two years in jail and to pay a fine of $10,000 for defrauding the government out of tariff duty by soaking decayed fruit with water to increase the refund on overipe cargoes. In round numbers, Seward is said to have obtained more than $180,000 by this method during the last four years, and a suit for $250,000 against him by the government to recover the amount of the alleged default is now pending in the United States courts in Baltimore.

One person was killed and several injured in a terrific windstorm which swept Louisville, Ky., yesterday evening. The property loss is roughly estimated at $250,000. The maximum velocity of the wind was sixty-eight miles an hour during the height of the storm, and the wind blew at the rate of sixty miles for fifteen minutes. Several streets were impassable for blocks last night, owing to the trees which litter the roadways. Damage at New Albany, Ind., by the storm is estimated at $50,000.

Spanish newspapers are displaying a strong anti-American sentiment in connection with the Japanese-American dispute. Against the Two Cent Rate.

Richmond, Va., July 10.—The summer term of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals is in session here with Judges Pritchard, Goff and Boyd present. The decision of Judge Pritchard in the case of the appeal of the railroads of the State against the order of the Corporation Commission, fixing a two-cent passenger rate for the larger roads was handed down today.

Judge Pritchard decided against the Virginia Corporation Commission.

The opinion of Judge Pritchard holds that the Corporation Commission cannot exercise the powers of a court. The decision is a blow to the State. The case will go to the Supreme Court.

The United States and Japan.

London, July 10.—England today acknowledges the possibility of war between the United States and Japan. Confession of this belief is evident by the preparation being made by the government to prevent Great Britain being drawn into such a conflict despite her treaty with Japan. Diligent study of the treaty, it is asserted, has found a loop-hole whereby England may evade on a technicality giving assistance to her ally except in contingencies too remote to consider. For the first time since the dispute between the nations arose English newspapers today speak of war as a possibility by discussing the attitude they must assume in the event of hostilities. "As long as San Francisco declines to give the Japanese fair treatment friction is inevitable, and this may at any moment become acute, England has a special interest in Japanese-American relations. In the event of the war between the two countries it will probably be the duty of England to inform Japan that under no circumstances would she form a war contract against America."

Tokio, July 10.—The Nichi Nichi Shimbun today declares that Viscount Aoki, Japanese ambassador to the United States, is expected to return to Japan in October. Extreme dissatisfaction has been expressed by many elements with Aoki's evident friendliness to the United States which has been described as his dilatoriness to the cause of Japanese in America and his recall has been frequently urged. The declaration that he will return in October is regarded therefore as significant.

The Telegraphers.

Chicago, July 10.—President Samuel J. Small, of the Telegraphers' Union, leaves San Francisco today for Chicago. With his arrival this city becomes the center of the strike troubles. Failure of the final effort on the part of strikers here to effect a compromise or get a hearing from the Western Union officials led to the belief that immediate union action will follow Small's arrival. A crisis has arrived, and it is expected that he will secure satisfactory terms from the Western Union at once or declare a strike of much proportions as to compel concession. Local union officials say guerilla warefare against the Western Union Company has proven unavailing and that national officers, backed by unions all over the country, have determined to adopt a policy of concerted attack upon the company at widely separated points. There is little probability of a strike this week. President Small will meet the local organizations here Sunday. It is expected now that simultaneous strikes will be called at this meeting in Chicago, San Francisco and New York, cutting off the opportunity of transferring small reserves from point to point as needed.

The Hague Conference.

The Hague, July 10 —America's proposition exempting private property from seizure at sea during war started the first warm argument in the peace conference today. It was finally decided to postpone a vote until next Wednesday when, it is believed, the proposal will be voted down unless withdrawn.

Most of the speakers declared the proposition ideal, but premature, and preferred some moderate improvement rather than such a radical change.

Italy, Belgium, Brazil, Holland, Greece, Norway and Denmark for the most part favored uniform treatment of property in land and naval warfare.

Moyer on the Stand.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

City Council.

The last regular meeting of the City Council until next October was held last night. The only matter of general importance before the two bodies was the election of certain city officers. In each case where the present incumbent was a candidate for re-election he succeeded himself. A list of the officers elected will be found in the official proceedings of the Common Council.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

A report of the committee on streets recommending an appropriation of $1,200 for the improvement of Alfred street from Prince to Duke streets, received from the Common Council at the last meeting and laid over, was read.

Mr. Summers called attention to the fact that most of the people on the square had signified their desire for a vitrified brick roadway, and it was probable that all will eventually agree to have such an improvement.

It was suggested that according to the report of the committee the appropriation would not be available until those residing on the square had signed the necessary application. It would then be seen what class of improvement they desired.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Hill, from the finance committee, submitted an adverse report on an application of Louis Krexsin for an abatement of license tax. The report was adopted.

Mr. Hill introduced a resolution, which, at his request, was referred to the finance committee, providing for a license tax of $2.50 per week on entertainments where no more than 10 cents is charged for admission.

Mr. Marbury introduced a resolution, which was adopted, providing that when Council adjourned it be to meet on the second Tuesday in October, 1907.

The Aldermen concurred in the action of the Common Council on all papers sent in and subsequently repaired to the chamber of the lower board for the purpose of participating in the election of certain city officers, and upon their return adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board was called to order at 8:15 o'clock.

A resolution appropriating $200 for a brick and cobble gutter on both sides of Oronoco street, Patrick to Henry, was referred to the committee on streets.

A petition from sundry citizens asking that a light be placed at the intersection of Fairfax and Gibbon streets was referred to the committee on light.

Mr. Uhler offered a resolution directing the committee on public property to have the walls of the office of the Clerk of Gas pointed and painted, and appropriating $50 for the work, which was referred to the commissioners of the sinking fund.

Mr. Snowden introduced a resolution appropriating $250 to repair the roadway on Franklin street, from Lee to Union, and asked that it be passed at once, as Council would not meet for some time, and the roadway was almost impassable.

The resolution was passed.

Mr. Williams said he had been requested to state that the water in the pipes supplying the fish benches and the closets in the Market building had been cut off by the water company and that the matter should be attended to.

Mr. Snowden said the commissioners of the sinking fund had agreed to rent the fish benches to Messrs. Travers and Price, providing they would pay for the water and gas, and now the commissioners understood that they had repudiated the agreement. They could economize in their use of gas and it would cost them very little. The commissioners would if necessary have the closets put on a separate pipe from that which was used in the fish market.

Mr. Evans wanted to know if the closets were still in use as they should be.

Mr. Snowden said it was not the intention of the sinking fund commissioners to cut off the water in the closets.

Mr. Williams said the statement in regard to the fish benches was satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hellmuth said people washed their vehicles at the hydrants at the fish benches, which should be stopped by the Market Master or those using the water for such purposes should be taxed for the water. This ended the matter.

A communication was received from the Alexandria Light Infantry asking relief from a bill of $206 20 for gas used at Armory Hall. The matter was referred to the committee on light.

A communication was received from the Mayor stating that people living near the land used by the city scavenger were complaining, and stating that inasmuch as no bidder for the night soil contract was expected under present conditions something should be done. The communication was refered to the committees on streets and general laws.

Mr. Birrell said the committee on streets should call the attention of the W., A. & Mt. V. Ry. Co. to the condition of Cameron street about their tracks there. The street was in a very bad condition.

Mr. Leadbeater said the committee would take up the matter with the railway company but would not promise anything. The railway company's attention had been called to the condition of their tracks at King and Fairfax streets, and they had promised to repair the street, but they had never done so.

A resolution was received from the Board of Aldermen that when Council adjourns it be until the second Tuesday in October and their action was concurred in.

WILSON'S VERSION.

Miss Florence Schenck, in an interview in New York yesterday, declared her qualification as an expert with the pistol and asserted her intention of shooting on sight, Charles H. Wilson, manager of Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stables, who she declares married her despite the fact that he had a wife living in Orange, N. J., at the time. She declared that her love had turned to hate, saying:

"I am only twenty years old, but I am expert with a revolver. If he ever crosses my path again, I'll shoot him on sight."

Wilson yesterday said:

"I met Miss Schenck while I was managing the Vanderbilt string at the Norfolk Horse Show. We were never introduced, but took a fancy to each other and had dinner together at a hotel on the night of our meeting. I took her to the Horse Show the next day and she grew very confidential. She told me that her parents were trying to force her to marry a young navy lieutenant and that she was very unhappy.

"Right here I wish to state that I never deceived her as to my marriage. I told her I had a wife living in Jersey, but that if she wanted to go to New York I would see that she got there. She readily accepted this invitation, and we came here a few days later.

"My wife met us in New York, and I introduced Miss Schenck to her as a daughter of a dear friend of mine. The three of us then went to "The Farm," at Newport. There my wife suspected that I had deceived her about Miss Schenck and ordered her out of the house. She went to New York and I followed.

"When I was ordered to London she accompanied me, and we took apartments in Oxford terrace. I never introduced her to any one as my wife, but many persons whom we met thought she was Mrs. Wilson.

"She developed an ungovernable temper while in London and indulged in intoxicants. Once she attacked young Bronson Howard, an author, for forbidding her to invite his wife out with her again.

"She also attacked me on several occasions, but I never raised by hands to her. I deny her statement that I did not give her sufficient money to get along with. When she left her home in Norfolk she carried her clothes in a paper bundle. Yesterday, when she left the steamship, she had five steamer trunks and $500 worth of dutiable goods. I gave her $50 on the pier and sent her a check for $150 more today."

Mr. Wilson then spoke of Miss Schenck's desire to become an actress. He said her one ambition was to get on the stage and that he, even now, was perfectly willing to help her.

"Of course, this affair has separated my wife and myself," he said, "but I am willing to take care of Miss Schenck if she will only be reasonable."

Mme. Fromkins, who attempted to assassinate General Rheinbot in Moscow, was yesterday sentenced to death.

THE "ARK".

Vigorous action taken by Governor Swanson yesterday indicates his purpose to exhaust every means at his command to put a stop to certain practices within the border of the State, and to bring to speedy justice those who are openly violating Virginia laws of gambling, liquor selling and carousing on the Sabbath day. An interesting and far-reaching case is that of the ark in the Potomac river, to while the Governor directed his attenion yesterday. This contrivance, which has been in operation for some time, and which has defied the Virginia and Maryland authorities, is a sort of house-boat said to be a floating barroom and gambling den, paying no license and permitting its patrons to indulge in nearly every form of lawlessness.

It anchors somewhere near the Virginia-Maryland line in the Potomac and sends small boats to Alexandria, Washington, Georgetown and other nearby points to bring in the "sports."

Commonwealth's Attorney Samuel G. Brent, of Alexandria, has written Governor Swanson a letter, setting out in detail the conditions prevailing on the ark. As a result of this communication the Governor has written Gov. Warfield, of Maryland, asking his co-operation in the matter, and declaring that he is ready to go to any lengths in his power to rout this nest of culprits.

Alexandria, Va., June 27, 1907.

To His Excellency, Claude A. Swanson, Governor of Virginia, Richmond, Va.

My Dear Governor,—I have been called upon by a large number of citizens of this community to bring to your attention the fact that an ark boat or floating boat, fixed up for the purpose of gambling and the sale of intoxicating liquors, is anchored in the Maryland waters a short distance from Alexandria. The patronage of this gambling establishment is furnished by the people of the city of Washington, who take the ferry-boat in Washington and are landed at the ferry wharf in this city. They are then taken on board a tug at the foot of King street, in this city, and conveyed to the ark or floating boat, where they indulge in all kinds of gambling, and drinks are furnished them until a large number become intoxicated.

The people remain upon this ark until late hours of the night, and after leaving the said ark, are landed upon the wharves of Alexandria city, a great many of whom are in a drunken condition. It has become an intolerable and insufferable nuisance to this community, and the people are anxious that it should be broken up

As the unlawful gambling and sale of whisky is carried on in the waters of the Potomac, which is within the jurisdiction of the State of Maryland, I would respectfully request that you call the attention of the Governor of Maryland to this matter and ask him to see that the laws of Maryland are enforced.

Mr. Fred J. Paff, Mayor of this city, some time ago called the Governor of Maryland's attention to this matter, but he referred it to the sheriff of Prince George's county, and no action has been taken in the premises. I think this is a matter that ought to commend itself to the consideration of every law-abiding citizen of both States. Maryland does not suffer from this violation of the law, but the people of Alexandria are compelled to receive in their community the scum and filth of Washington city. Any effort on your part to relieve the people of this community of this nuisance will be greatly appreciated and remembered.

I inclose you a copy of the letter which I have received in reference to the matter.

Respectfully,
SAMUEL G. BRENT,
Attorney for the Commonwealth.

Governor Swanson has assured Mr. Brent that he will render him every possible assistance in breaking up this gang of outlaws, and has addressed the following communication to Governor Warfield, of Maryland, on the subject:

July 9, 1907.

His Excellency, Edward Warfield, Governor of Maryland, Annapolis, Md.:

My Dear Governor Warfield: I inclose you herewith copies of letters sent me in regard to a matter in which I ask your most earnest and active co-operation.

You will see from the inclosed correspondence that there is a floating boat which is each Sunday anchored in the waters of Maryland, and to which the people of Virginia, Washington and elsewhere go on Sunday to engage in gambling, drinking and other very reprehensible conduct. I will appreciate it very much if you will take active measures to suppress this evil, or give me your permission to do so. The matter has become a source of much annoyance and the cause of much disorder in the city of Alexandria. I will be very glad, indeed, if you will give this matter your immediate attention and co-operate with me in every possible way in suppressing this lawlessness.

Hoping to hear from you favorably, I am, with esteem and regard,

Yours very truly,
CLAUDE A. SWANSON,
Governor of Virginia.

The governor declares that if Governor Warfield will co-operate or give his consent for the entering of Maryland waters by Virginia officers, he will see that the ark is captured and the proprietors brought to justice.

DISORDERLY PROCEEDINGS.

Complaint has recently been made by people living in the southeastern section of the city of nocturnal proceedings on the part of certain young men and women. The latter are a new importation in the neighborhood, and it is said they attract numbers of youngsters, some of whom have barely entered manhood, while others are still in their minority. On Monday night about 12 o'clock officer Young heard two pistol shots on Gibbon street, between Fairfax and Royal. He hastened to the square where he found several young men and young women, none of whom, however, told him who discharged the pistol. The officer yesterday obtained further information and arrested a young man who lives in the neighborhood who he had reason to believe fired the pistol. The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning, but, in the absence of a material witness, the case was continued until tomorrow. It is said that considerable unseemly conduct is also carried on in the neighborhood of Franklin and Royal streets at night, and the officers are endeavoring to identify all offenders and bring them before the Police Court.

The mercury reached the 90 mark again today.

FIGHT FOR CLOSED SHOP.

The organized workmen of Washington have declared the fight for the union shop is on, and a general strike of the building trades appears to be inevitable. For the last two weeks the situation has been critical, but the action of the Trades Union within the last day or two and the determination of the employers to continue their present attitude toward what they regard as the tyranny of organized labor has brought on a deadlock and unless both sides to the controversy get together and agree upon some plan of settlement a complete tieup of building operations in the District is at hand. The employers' association late yesterday afternoon gave out a statement giving their side of the situation, and declaring that "they are determined to continue their present attitude and conduct their business according to their own views, and without outside interference or dictation." They declare that the labor unions have come from their cover and openly declared war for the "closed shop." The employers declare that they have never taken the initiative in any move against labor unions, but have and will resist all unions which endeavor to obstruct the building industry and to monopolize by restricted membership and decreased efficiency the supply of labor.

The members of the Employers' Association say that they have no desire to drive their employes to the poorhouse, nor do they intend to go into bankruptcy themselves, but, on the other hand, are anxious to continue to employ the skilled workmen that have been working in the past, at the prevailing rate of wages, but insist on a fair day's work for such wage, and that work must proceed without stoppage, restriction or embarrassment, and at all times reserving the privilege of running their own business without dictation from the unions.

The labor unions at their meeting declared that they believed they were confronted with a conspiracy on the part of the employers to enforce the "open shop" principle. "Organized labor cannot view the open shop in any other light than the disintegration of the workingmen's organizations, and that proposition they will combat and fight to the last ditch."

INVESTIGATING SAUSAGE.

The health authorities of the District of Columbia have been exploring the mysteries of local sausage and they find that it contains wheat and corn and starch and spices, but there are no charges made which would give reason for the old joke about lost dogs. The saltpeter is used to preserve the sausage and to give the meat a bright, natural color. Dr. Lynch personally believes that the use of saltpeter is unhealthy and is in violation of the provisions of the pure food law. In small doses, he says, saltpeter affects the liver and in large doses it affects the lining of the stomach, causing irritation and slow, weak pluse. "Poisonous quantities, one-half ounce or more," he says, "produce severe gastro-enteritis, convulsions and occasionally death."

Ground cereals, according to Dr. Lynch, are often added to sausage meat as "fillers" in order that the sausage-makers can add a greater amount of water than would otherwise be possible, and thus make his sausage weigh more. It also makes it possible to stuff more fat into the sausage. Starch is put into the smoked sausage, he declares, so that the sausage, when boiled in hot water, swells up on account of the starch and looks plump and tasty when served for breakfast.

LAWN SOCIAL.

The P. A. B., a norganization of girls in the Second Presbyterion Sunday school, will give a lawn social tomorrow night on the lawn adjoining the residenee of Mr. G. B. Kennedy, 323 S. Fairfax St. The funds realized will be given to the Sunday school building fund. From 5 to 7.30 the children are invited to come and blow soap bubbles. A silver offering will be taken, and ice cream and cake will be served. From 8 to 11 oclock the older people are invited to come and spend a social evening. You will be expected to bring one cent for every five pounds of your weight. Refreshments served.

STRUCK BY STONES.

Children who assemble and engage in diversions on Lee street, between King and Prince, are compelled to dodge cobblestones which are said to be hurled from yards on that square. Two children were struck yesterday, one of whom, a little son of Officer Gill, was painfully hurt. The stone, which was as large as a goose egg, struck the child on the head, cutting the scalp and causing an ugly wound. It is supposed that the stones are thrown by neighbors who are annoyed by the children.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Penn, white, and Ellen Kemper, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

FATHER AND SON DEAD.

Mr. George Davis, a former merchant of Washington, but recently a resident of Occoquan, died at that place at 12:30 yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 71 years old. His son, Mr. Earl Davis, aged 28 years, died last night. The elder Davis had been making preparations to engage in business at Occoquan.

LUNA PARK NOTES.

The Beachy air ship engagement is drawing to a close at Luna Park, and after the final ascension on Friday next, it will embark for distant parts, making room for the great "Alfreno," a European aerial artist, who will present the most sensational high wire act ever seen in America.

Conway's Ithaca Band opened Monday last under the most favorable conditions. The band is under the careful leadership of Mr. Patrick Conway. The roster of the band is composed of eminent musicians, whose ability has long since been tested and who are universally known and lauded for their clever solo work. There are forty musicians in the band, which has a fairly large proportion of wind and reed instruments; also of the strepant strains of the sonorous tuba bass and the penetrating, yet mellow, sounds of the piccolo. Speaking of the Ithaca Band, it compares favorably with any of its musical compeers. Its most tremendous fortissimo does not stun the ear nor distort the composer's meaning, while in lighter passages the music is graceful, fluent, fanciful and surcharged with all that renders it melodious.

The famous Armstrong Brothers, with their whirlwind bicycle act, are attracting considerable attention on the hippodrome stage, where they are presenting their cleverly put together specialty twice daily.

The Luna Park baseball team will play the Ballston team from Alexandria county at Luna Park this afternoon at 5:15 o'clock. Burrell and Garvey will be the battery for the park aggregation, and Bailey and Ball for the visitors.

The annual excursion of National Hive, Ladies of the Maccabees of the World of Washington, will be a gala event at Luna Park tomorrow. A special programme has been provided and the following events will take place: Drill by 30 young ladies; Peanut race, girls, 10 to 15; Potato race, girls, 6 to 10; Sack race, boys, 10 to 15; Running race, boys, 10 to 15; Ladies race for Maccabees only, 5:07 and dash.

DEATH OF MR. McCARTHY.

Florence McCarthy, aged about 40, died last night about 7 o'clock, on the Concord and Forest line of the Norfolk & Western Railroad near Jacksonton. Nothing is known as to the man's home as he had only been in the employ of Bunting and Malone, the contractors, for two days, and was reported to be ailing when he began work. He was employed on a steam shovel and was overcome by heat about half past five o'clock. Half an hour later he was found unconscious in a field near the works and at seven o'clock died. His remains were brought to the city last night and were taken to the undertaking establishment of W. D. Duguid to be prepared for burial.—[Lynchburg News.

The above evidently refers to Mr. T. Florence McCarthy, of Alexandria, who left this city several months ago to seek employment. Mr. McCarthy was until recently a well-to-do man but ill luck overtook him and he rapidly lost his property. He was at one time president of the Y. M. S. L., of this city, and had a large circle of friends. His wife and three little children who survive him recently moved to Fredericksburg.

MEETING OF UNION.

A meeting of the Alexandria branch of the Street and Electric Railway Employes' Union was held last night when the difficulty between the union and the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, growing out of the discharge of members of the organization, was reviewed. It was decided to hold a meeting tomorrow night of the Alexandria Trades Council for the purpose of considering relations between the union and the railway company.

The committee reported that they had held a conference with C. P. King, president of the W., A. & Mt. V. Ry., and that Mr. King had informed them that he alone was responsible for the discharge of the men, Mr. Colvin not being in any way connected with the men's dismissal. President King further informed the committee that he did not contemplate taking back any of the discharged men.

BOAT RACE.

The new motor boat just launched by Mr. Bruce Emerson is supposed to be the swiftest on the river. In order to try the merits of the different crafts a race has been arranged between Mr. Wm. A. The alarm of fire at 2 o'clock this afternoon was caused by the explosion of an oil stove at the residence of Mr. Harry Edwards, 323 north Columbus street. Mr. Edwards was seriously burned about the face and arms by the explosion.

The excursion to Marshall Hall to have been given on Friday night by Rev. C. D. Bulla's Bible class of the M. E. Church South has bren postponed by reason of the laying of the cornerstone of the Hill Memorial building, which is to take place on Friday evening.

England's Historic Miser.

John Camden Neild, whose magnificent bequest to Queen Victoria supplied the funds out of which the prince consort built the present Balmoral castle, deserves a place among the great misers and was as remarkable a man as any of them. He was educated at Eton and Trinity college, Cambridge, and was a barrister at Lincoln's Inn. At the age of thirty-four his father's death placed him in possession of a fortune of £250,000, and from that moment he became a confirmed miser. Neild lived at 5 Cheyne walk, Chelsea. His big house was so meanly furnished that it did not even boast of a bed. Two old women, who did his chores, and a black cat were his sole companions. When he visited his large estates in the Midlands, which he did frequently, he generally walked unless he could get a lift for nothing, and he was not even above taking a gratuitous seat on a dung cart. Sometimes he was compelled by the weather to take a seat on the stagecoach, and there he would sit outside, shivering and dripping, for he never wore a greatcoat, an object of commiseration to his fellow passengers.

Lincoln's Rebuke.

The saying that there are few honest lawyers did not hold true in the case of Lincoln. A man once called to retain him on a suit.

"State your case," said honest Abe.

The man did, and then Lincoln said:

"I cannot represent you, for you are wrong, and the other party is right."

"That is none of your business if I employ you," said the client.

"Pardon me," said the man who afterward became president; "my business is never to defend wrong. I never take a case that is manifestly wrong."

"Well, but you can make trouble for the other fellow."

"Yes," said Lincoln, "I can set a whole community at loggerheads, I can make trouble for this widow and her fatherless children and by so doing get you $600 that rightfully belongs to her, but I won't do it."

"Not if I pay you well?"

"Not for all the money you are worth," was the reply.

A Warrior Too.

The wooden boards that had marked the graves in a certain rural cemetery rotted off and were raked up in the spring cleaning. Consequently on Memorial day when the delegation from the G. A. R. arrived with flags and appropriate floral decorations for their departed comrades the decorating committee found itself somewhat in doubt as to which grave belonged to Captain Blodgett and which to Hannah Ericson. The mistaken delegates heaped their offerings upon Hannah's last resting place and departed. That afternoon Ericson, the widower, drifted, with the rest of his world, to the cemetery. When he saw the flag and the flowers above Hannah the astonished Swede fell to chuckling joyously.

"Vell," he exclaimed delightedly, "dose faller bane pooty smart too! Ay tank dat vor all right and som gude yoke on Hannah—he vor pooty gude fighter berselluf."—Youth's Companion.

Devonshire Terrace.

Dickens was twenty-seven years old when, in 1839, he moved from Doughty street to Devonshire terrace. George du Maurier lived for some years in 1 Devonshire terrace. In this celebrated house Dickens wrote no fewer than ten of his books—"The Old Curiosity Shop," "Barnaby Rudge," "The Christmas Carol," "American Notes," "Martin Chuzzlewit," "The Haunted Man," "The Battle of Life," "Dombey and Son," "The Cricket on the Hearth" and "David Copperfield." Devonshire terrace was situated at the corner of the Marylebone road and used to be called the smallest terrace in London.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 125 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.
